I would like to ask permission to post on the web the out of print "Gmelin Handbook of Inorganic and Organometallic Chemistry Complete Catalog 1997/8". Note this is simply a listing of the Gmelin books you published. There is no content from the Gmelin volumes, just title, brief abstract, and ISBN number.

Since most of the Gmelin volumes are out of print, one can not get a complete list of what you published from your web site. Librarians like myself have a real problem managing our old Gmelin print books since this is the only complete list of published volumes ever published. Alternatively, would you be willing to mount this publication as a service to chemistry information specialists and librarians everywhere.
